Solemnity of Pentecost

Year C

Yearning for the Spirit of Unity and Holiness

We live in a world torn by conflicting interests, jealousy, aggressiveness, and so many forms of enslavement. All this is the consequence of SIN, from the first to the latest sin that has darkened the horizon of mankind. Left to ourselves, we would have been unable to overcome such destructive forces. That is why God sent the Holy Spirit, as the divine healing Power that can undo the tragedies of division, mistrust, and hatred brought about by human sinfulness.

Today we commemorate the giving of the Holy Spirit by the Risen Christ to the Apostles on Easter Day and his solemn descent on them on Pentecost Day, as they were gathered in the Upper Room. Let us open our hearts to Him so that we, too, may share in their wonderful experience. May the Holy Spirit fashion us into a community characterized by mutual acceptance, appreciation, solidarity, and brotherly/sisterly love.

INTRODUCTORY RITES

Entrance Antiphon

(To be recited only when no Entrance Hymn is sung.)

The love of God has been poured into our hearts through the Spirit of God dwelling within us, alleluia!

Greeting

P –May the love, grace and peace of the Holy Spirit be with you all!

All–And with your spirit!

Penitential Act

P –My brothers and sisters, let us realize how much we need the Holy Spirit in our life and in how many ways we have become unworthy of His presence in us. (Pause)

P –For the times we have not appreciated the preciousness of the gift of the Holy Spirit, Lord, have mercy!

All–Lord, have mercy!

P –For the times we have closed our minds and hearts to the promptings and guidance of the Holy Spirit, Christ, have mercy!

All–Christ, have mercy!

P –For the times we have profaned the presence of the Holy Spirit in ourselves and others, through sinful desires, thoughts or actions, Lord, have mercy!

All–Lord, have mercy!

P –May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

All–Amen!

Gloria

All –Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen!

Collect (Opening Prayer)

P –O God, who by the mystery of today’s great feast sanctify your whole Church in every people and nation, pour out, we pray, the gifts of the Holy Spirit across the face of the earth and, with the divine grace that was at work when the Gospel was first proclaimed, fill now once more the hearts of all believers.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit one God, for ever and ever.
All–Amen!

1st Reading Acts 2:1-11
The descent of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost Day fulfilled the promise made by Jesus before he ascended into heaven. From that moment on, mankind started becoming the new people of God, characterized by unity, harmony, solidarity, and brotherly/sisterly love.

R –A proclamation from the Acts of the Apostles

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, the disciples were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, “Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God.”

The Word of the Lord!
All–Thanks be to God!

Responsorial Psalm Ps 104

R –Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth!

R. M. Velez

* Bless the Lord, O my soul! O Lord, my God, you are great indeed! How manifold are your works, O Lord! The earth is full of your creatures.
R.

* If you take away their breath, they perish and return to their dust. When you send forth your spirit, they are created, and you renew the face of the earth.
R.

* May the glory of the Lord endure forever; may the Lord be glad in his works! Pleasing to him be my theme; I will be glad in the Lord.
R.

2nd Reading 1 Cor 12:3-7. 12-13

The community of Corinth was plagued with divisions and rivalries. With fatherly concern, Paul exhorts them to be united in the Holy Spirit, the source of all gifts.

R –A proclamation from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters:

No one can say, “Jesus is Lord,” except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

As a body is one, though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

The Word of the Lord!
All–Thanks be to God!

Gospel Jn 20:19-23

St. John tells us that the Holy Spirit was the most precious and lasting gift that the Risen Christ gave to his disciples on the very day of his resurrection.

P –The Lord be with you!

All—And with your spirit!

P –A proclamation from the holy Gospel according to John

All—Glory to you, O Lord!

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.” When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.”

The Gospel of the Lord!
All—Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!

Homily

Profession of Faith

(Nicene-Constantinopolitan Creed)

All—I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (bow)* and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen!

Prayer of the Faithful

P –Aware that we need the Holy Spirit’s help to live up to the challenges of our Christian commitment, we pray:

All—Come, Holy Spirit, we need you!

C –That the whole Catholic Church may be, at all times, an instrument of reconciliation and a promoter of unity among all peoples, let us pray! R.

C –That the Holy Father and the other leaders of the Church may provide the faithful with an ever more inspiring leadership, let us pray! R.

C –That all those engaged in the teaching profession may instill authentic values in their students, let us pray! R.

C –That all civil leaders throughout the world, especially in our country, may be guided solely by concern for the common good, let us pray! R.

C –That those among us who are burdened with trials of whatever kind may find in our community the support they need, let us pray! R.

C –Let us pray in silence for our personal intentions. (Pause) Let us pray! R.

P –Spirit of life and holiness, guide our hearts into the way of love and service, that we may be valid instruments in the building of the Kingdom where You live and care with the Father and the Lord Jesus, one God, for ever and ever.

All—Amen!

Preparation of the Gifts

P –Pray, brethren . . .

All—May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands, for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

Prayer over the Offerings

P –Grant, we pray, O Lord, that, as promised by your Son, the Holy Spirit may reveal to us more abundantly the hidden mystery of this sacrifice and graciously lead us into all truth.

Through Christ our Lord.
All—Amen!

Preface of Pentecost

P –The Lord be with you!

All—And with your spirit!

P –Lift up your hearts!

All—We lift them up to the Lord!

P –Let us give thanks to the Lord our God!

All—It is right and just!

P –It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God.

For, bringing your Paschal Mystery to completion, you bestowed the Holy Spirit today on those you made your adopted children by uniting them to your Only Begotten Son. This same Spirit, as the Church came to birth, opened to all peoples the knowledge of God and brought together the many languages of the earth in the profession of the one faith.

Therefore, overcome with paschal joy, every land, every people exults in your praise and even the heavenly Powers, with the angelic hosts, sing together the unending hymn of your glory, as they acclaim:

All—Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest!

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest!

Memorial Acclamation

P —The mystery of faith!

(To be recited only when no Communion Hymn is sung.)

They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke of the marvels of God, alleluia!

Prayer after Communion

P —O God, who bestow heavenly gifts upon your Church, safeguard, we pray, the grace you have given, that the gift of the Holy Spirit poured out upon her may retain all its force and that this spiritual food may gain her abundance of eternal redemption.

Through Christ our Lord.

All—Amen!

P —The Lord be with you.

All—And with your spirit!

P —Bow your heads and pray for God's blessing. (Pause)

—May God, the Father of lights, who was pleased to enlighten the disciples' minds by the outpouring of the Spirit, the Paraclete, grant you gladness and make you always abound with the gifts of the same Spirit.

All—Amen!

P —May the wondrous flame that appeared above the disciples powerfully cleanse your hearts from every evil and pervade them with its purifying light.

All—Amen!

P —May our loving Lord, who has been pleased to unite many tongues in the profession of one faith, give you perseverance in that same faith that you may journey from hope to clear vision.

All—Amen!

P —And may the blessing of almighty God: the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, come down on you and remain with you for ever.

All—Amen!

P —Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life!

Alleluia! Alleluia!

All—Thanks be to God!

Alleluia! Alleluia!
